

You Are a Sunset

and you and you and you and you and I, too

the beauty in that,
the possibilities

And there is nothing you need to do to attain sunset,
to achieve sunset,
to accomplish this

Only the journey

to understand
to experience yourself in this way and everyone else

to bring this out to be inspired to pull out the notebook or take the photograph to take good care

to become what already is
